

Plan of the Water Analyses at the Lower Permeable Layer (Sea-Side) on the East of the Turbine Building at Fukushima Daiichi NPS

<Reference>
 October 4, 2013
 Tokyo Electric Power Company

We will conduct water samplings and analyses, for the purpose of checking the quality of water in the lower permeal layer (the second permeal layer) on the east of the Turbine Buildings.

○Boring Location

○Schedule

	September		October
	Late	Early	Middle	Late
Unit 3 (sea side)	Work began on September 27.	Boring work Water samplings and analyses
Between Unit 3 and 4 (sea side)		Work will began early in October	Boring work Water samplings and analyses

*Boring work schedule is subject to change under the geological features etc.